

The Chicago School of Professional Psychology

Articulation Agreement between M.A. Psychology and Ph.D. International Psychology
2015-2017

Program Articulation Table

M.A. Psychology Course	CH	Course Substituted from Ph.D. International Psychology	CH
Generalist concentration students: Any MAP program elective International Psychology concentration students: Any IP concentration course	3	IP 790 Ethics and Professional Development	3
Generalist concentration students: Any MAP program elective International Psychology concentration students: Any IP concentration course	3	IP 798 Foundations of International Psychology* OR IP 800 Foundations of Global Mental Health*	3

Note: Students may be offered either course, depending on availability.

Student Eligibility for Taking the Advanced Courses:

- GPA must be 3.2 or higher.
- Student must have completed Academic Success Program (including writing assessment, orientation)
- Student must have passed each course taken to date in her or his home program.
- Student must be making satisfactory progress in ARP coursework and seminars (if applicable)
- Student must meet professional comportment guidelines set forth in the Student Handbook and have no referrals to the Student Affairs Committee.
- Student enrolls in these courses in the final semester.

What will be the Admission Standards for students progressing to the higher degree? Is the student guaranteed admission?

- Students completing these two doctoral level courses with a B or higher on the first attempt will be auto-admitted to the doctoral program as long as all other admission requirements have been met.

Tuition

- Students will pay M.A. tuition rate for the Ph.D. classes while enrolled in the M.A. program.

A student who is interested in the Articulation Agreement should contact their Department Chair. The Department Chair will evaluate and determine eligibility. If eligibility is met, student will complete need to complete Articulation Agreement Registration Request form, obtain approvals from both home and host Department Chairs, and submit the request to the Office of the Registrar.