

The Chicago School of Professional Psychology

Articulation Agreement between M.A. International Psychology and Ph.D. International Psychology
2016-2018

Program Articulation Table

Qualified M.A. International Psychology (M.A. IP) may substitute MA IP courses with Ph.D. International Psychology courses as listed below, up to a total of 9 credit hours. Successfully completed courses will count toward both degrees.

M.A. International Psychology	CH	Ph.D. International Psychology	CH
IN521 Global Mental Health and Human Rights	3	IP800 Foundations of Global Mental Health	3
IN595 Capstone/Field Experience	3	IP690 Diversity in Psychology – Field Experience I	3
Students may also substitute one concentration course from the options below
IN550 Process of Acculturation, Immigration and Refugee Status (Trauma and Group Conflict concentration)	3	IP844 Theoretical Perspectives of Acculturation and Assimilation	3
IN560 - Global Management - Decision Making, Negotiation and Problem Solving (Management and Leadership concentration)	3	IP897 Change Management	3

What will be the Admission Standards for students progressing to the higher degree? Is the student guaranteed admission?

- Students completing these two doctoral level courses with a B or higher on the first attempt will be auto-admitted to the doctoral program as long as all other admission requirements have been met.

Tuition

Students will pay M.A. tuition rate for the Ph.D. classes while enrolled in the M.A. program.

A student who is interested in the Articulation Agreement should contact their Department Chair. The Department Chair will evaluate and determine eligibility. If eligibility is met, student will complete need to complete Articulation Agreement Registration Request form, obtain approvals from both home and host Department Chairs, and submit the request to the Office of the Registrar.